

MRS. S. ROBERTSON RETURNS FROM TRIP

Called to Niangu, Mo., three weeks ago because of the illness of her father, L. O. Milford, Mrs. R. M. Robertson has now returned to her home at 1551 W. 221st St.

Milford and his wife moved to Niangu eight years ago after residing in Lomita for 26 years. While in Missouri, Mrs. Robertson also visited her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Robertson, at Jefferson City, and made several sightseeing trips to Dagnall Lake, Kansas City, and other points of interest.

Herald Family Enlarged By Two Infants

When the first winds of March blew in, news of two additions to the Herald family came with them.

Production Manager Clay B. Carley was a grandfather for the third time, and Circulation Manager Gerry L. Wenker was a papa again.

The Carley infant, born to Mr. and Mrs. Clay B. Carley Jr. of Santa Rosa at 9:30 p.m. Feb. 28, weighed 6 lb. 5 oz. Named Curtis Bryan, he has two brothers, Clay the Third and Chris.

Mrs. Carley left her home at 3515 Arlington Ave. Monday to get her first view of the new grandson. Second Lt. George Carley, another son of the Torrance Carleys who is slated for Korean service the latter part of this month, also is at Santa Rosa, taking advantage of a 30-day leave from Fort Ord to see his small nephew.

Wenker is busy circulating back and forth between Torrance and Riverside to see his wife and baby, who are at Riverside Community Hospital.

Born one month premature Mar. 1 at 10:18 p.m., the new son tipped the scales at 5 lb. 4 oz. He has one brother, Robert, 2.

The Wenkers, who live at 4925 Ave. B, were expecting a girl, so have not yet named the new addition to their family.

Deafness Prevention Clinic Open Today

Torrance children with hearing problems may receive treatment today at the Deafness Prevention Clinic of the San Pedro Assistance League, to open at 1 p.m. in the San Pedro Community Hospital.

WINS WCTU CONTEST

Ruth Ann Holton, 7-B student at 188th St. School, won top honors in the Women's Christian Temperance Union speech contest at last Friday's session in the Civic Auditorium.

Also included on the program was a talk on narcotics by Henry B. Hall, executive secretary of the Narcotics Foundation of America. Hall supplemented his talk with a film.

Red Cross Workers To Begin Residential Money Drive Today

Torrance Red Cross residential volunteers will kick-off their 1953 fund-raising drive at 10 o'clock this morning at a meeting at the YWCA building, 2390 W. Carson St.

Immediately after receiving final instructions from Mrs. James H. Van Dyck, residential chairman, the workers will canvass their areas for contributions.

Mrs. Van Dyck this week presented a fast campaign, and stressed the need for generous contributions from local residents.

Mrs. Van Dyck also announced this week the appointment of two more residential colonels to help lead the campaign. They are Mrs. Dale Sutton, 3743 W. 176th St., and Mrs. Isaac Isaacson, 17326 Glenburn Ave.

Small business workers held their final planning meeting Monday noon at the home of their chairman, Mrs. Don Hyde, 1597 El Prado Ave. Torrance businessmen will be called on by women volunteers this year and will not be asked to give their time to the drive, it was decided.

Fund Campaign Chairman J. Hugh Sherkey said he hoped this plan would work to everyone's advantage and that the businessmen would increase their donations of money accordingly.

When the volunteers make their rounds of residences and business firms, they will explain that this year, more than ever, Red Cross gifts are badly needed to save the lives of American fighting men in Korea, and to ward off the crippling effects of poliomyelitis, Sherkey said.

Although blood is donated by the American people, each pint still costs $4.50 to collect and process, the chairman explained. "Expensive equipment must be bought and maintained, and doctors, nurses, and laboratory technicians must be hired to assure a continuing supply of lifesaving blood being flown daily to fighting fronts and rear area hospitals," he said.

"Operation gamma globulin," the dramatic project to provide 1,200,000 units of the polio-fighting, whole-blood derivative before the expected summer epidemics, will cost Red Cross $7,000,000 this year, Sherkey revealed.

"This money must come from the generous contributions of you and your neighbors," he said. "The campaign slogan, 'You Give—They Live,' tells the whole story."

"Without your gifts of money and blood through Red Cross, many wounded soldiers and sick and injured civilians would die, and this summer thousands of children would be needlessly crippled and twisted for life from the effects of polio."

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Torrance High School. He also attended El Camino College for one year.

MR., MRS. BOWERS MOVE TO RIVERSIDE

C. H. Bowers, who has operated the Torrance Ice Co. since 1944, and his wife are now making their home in Riverside, where he will be affiliated with his son in the "Better Homes Industries."

Soroptimists To Make Final Plans For Torrance-Gardena Club At Tonight's Meeting

Final plans for the organization of a new Soroptimist Club in the Torrance-Gardena area will be made tonight when the committee directing the project meets at the home of Mrs. Dortha M. Roberts, 1421 Lagoon Ave., Los Angeles.

Working with Mrs. Roberts will be Mesdames Earnestine Mannatt, extension chairman; Edith Smith Carragher; Edna Whitlow; Winona Ellis, manager of the Torrance Department of Employment; Margaret Neff, industrial nurse at Columbia Steel; and Edna B. Walter, branch manager of the Farm Labor Office in Gardena.

Plans for the session were made at last week's Wednesday Harbor District Soroptimist meeting, which followed a monthly dinner at the Los Angeles home of Mrs. Mary Regan, with Mesdames Roberts, and Mae Leake and Miss Gertrude Groepel sharing hostess honors.

A discussion of the Soroptimist regional project, far-reaching philanthropy as a "second horizon" beyond immediate organizational pursuits, also highlighted the meeting. Mrs. Marion Young, president, outlined the project.

FRANK PAOUR III IS HOME ON LEAVE

Taking advantage of a 20-day leave from the U. S. Marine Corps to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour Jr., 1610 Amapola Ave., is Pvt. First Class Frank Paour, the Third, who has been stationed at the Whidbey Island Navy Air Base in Washington.
